MANY CARLSBAD RECRUITS

Association Purpose to Maintain Standard; Cattle Inspectors to Kansas City; Bridge Completed.

Carlsbad, N. M., June 23.—The alfalfa growers association of the lower valley continues to add new recruits to its ranks and now nearly all of the alfalfa growers in this section of the valley are allied with the organization.
There are already several thousand acres of this staple crop planted in this section and hundreds of acres more are being added each season. Already many of the growers have contracted for their entire year's crop.
The effect of the organization is to maintain a standard fixed price for the best grades of hay produced.
The repair work on the La Huerto bridge, spanning the Pecos river just north of town, has been completed and the bridge will be thrown open to the public immediately upon its acceptance by the county commissioners. The floor has been widened and laid with new timbers and the approaches at either end have been rebuilt.

Ed Toner of this city, who has been local cattle inspector for some time past, has gone to the stock yards at Kansas City where he has accepted the position as cattle inspector for the Southwestern Cattle Raisers' association. His advancement is a reward for his services here.

Mrs. Chas. R. Jones has returned to her home here after visiting her parents and friends in Kansas City and Emporia, Kansas.

HENRY KELLY AND HIS NEW SUIT PART OF AIRDOME SHOW

Quite a little home reception, and one that he was not looking for.
Sprung on "Henry" Kelly Wednesday day night, and one that he won't get over for quite awhile.

Mr. Kelly, who has been putting in his vacation among the big grasses of Kentucky, arrived home Wednesday clad in a brand new seersucker. He sporting the suit about town all afternoon and in the evening determined to wind up by taking in the performance at the Airdome. He found a determined to make the performance worth his while.

Kelly got down as near the front as he could get, which happened to be row No. 1. Pretty soon the strains of "Fas-Anbody Here Seen Kelly" were struck up. When the chorus was reached, the young man rendering the ditty varied it to run:

"Has any body here seen Henry Kelly?
"Kelly with the seersucker suit." There were roars of laughter and applause that brought half a dozen en-cores.

TO MISS ETHEL ROOSEVELT

An Oyster Bay Associated Press dispatch (dated Tuesday) says: "Noon brought Gen. Lake Wright, former secretary of war, and James Thompson Williams, Jr., a newspaper man, whom Tift made a civil service commissioner. Mr.
Williams now lives in Tucson, Ariz., and publishes the Citizen. Oyster Bay is exhibiting considerable interest in his visit.
He did not leave the station in the automobile which Roosevelt sent for Wright, but drove away by the side of Miss Ethel Roosevelt, who came in a carriage to meet him."

"MONEY FOR EL PASO"
POSTOFFICE SITE.
El Paso's new postoffice site is now assured. The bill carrying $60,000 appropriation for a postoffice site for El Paso has passed both houses of congress.
This information was received by the chamber of commerce Thursday in a message from congressman W. R. Smith, who has been urging the appropriation for El Paso in the house.

TOWN LOOKS DIFFERENT TO A MAN AWAY 15 YEARS.

"El Paso has grown so that one would hardly know the place any more," remarked William Fleming of Tucson, formerly a resident here, as he gazed at the numerous tall buildings.

"It's just 15 years since I left El Paso to go to Arizona," he continued.
"At that time the Grandfort, then the Vendome, was about the only hotel in town, with the exception of the Grand Central, which burned. There is not a building about the plaza that I can recognize and had to go over into the older part of the town to find out that I was really in El Paso."

DEFENDANT EXAMINES

toms service with having in his possession four cans of opium, was arraigned before United States commissioner George B. Oliver Thursday morning and placed under a bond of $500, answerable to the federal grand jury. Hamilton was not represented by an attorney but conducted the examination of the government witnesses himself, proving to be a man of more than ordinary intelligence.

HELD FOR GRAND JURY.
James Emmett Isaacs, who was given a preliminary hearing Thursday before justice Watson, was bound over to await the action of the grand jury. He is expected to give a $500 bond Thursday afternoon. Isaacs is charged with the theft of one head of cattle from J. I.
Hittson, living 50 miles north of Sierra Blanca.
